

February Comedy Nights

Every Friday • 8:00 • Free

February 5 - Steve Russell

Specializing in the unusual, different and "extra" ordinary, this slightly off-center variety show is a hit for the entire family. He's been on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, performed at Lincoln Center and toured with Penn and Teller as well as performed for audiences from India to Brazil to Tahiti.

February 12 - Mike Marvell

A top notch, nationally-touring comedian, Mike Marvell's comedy is a cross between Everybody Loves Raymond, My Wife and Kids, and The Simpsons. This class clown and lifetime practical joker will entertain audiences of all ages with stories about live and family.

February 19 - James Ervin Berry

This likable, down-to-earth, fun loving comedian guarantees foot stompin', hand clappin', smile on your face laughter. His observational humor with an educated homespun feel combined with boy-next-door charm gives him a connection with mainstream audiences nationwide.

February 26 - Bill Bushart

Bill's Ability to recant everyday situations in a unique and demented manner will leave you laughing the next day. His fearless interpretations of everyday mishaps are sure to strike a chord with audiences of all types.
